Nepal Hiking Trek takes the great pleasure to ensure the grandeur of the package as the tourists will be traveling to Thimpu, Paro, Punakha, Phobjikha and Haa Valley of the magnificent dragon kingdom of Bhutan.

The Bhuta Tour journey starts with the flight to the Paro and ultimately to Thimpu on a bus to start the tour. If the weather permits the clear view of the Mt. Everest and Mt. Kanchenjunga along with the tallest mountain of Bhutan Jumolhari appears from the plane window. The places like Dzong and the ancient royal family palaces will be visited along with the national library, the museum of handicrafts and folk heritage. These places are very traditional and still possess the ancient values. The craftsmanship of the Bhutanese people can be seen on the creative and amazing Gompas as well as monasteries. The Punakha Valley offers the spirituality and the tranquillity in the monasteries as well as the surrounding places. The mystical valley of Haa is another place for the amazing sightseeing. This is the valley where people are very courteous and traditional. The lifestyle of the people are very traditional and resemblance to that of the ancient times. This hidden rice land valley is famous for the temples in the Three Sisters Mountains. The watchtower to prevent the invasion of the Tibetans in ancient times still can be seen around the Phobjikha. The hiking of the Taktshang Goenba in Paro is another exciting activity to do in Paro. The world famous Tiger's Nest Monastery is the identity symbol of Bhutan. The monastery is vertically placed above 2000 ft from the floor of the valley. Overall the Bhutan tour will be the mesmerizing journey to the Himalayas and the traditional places of Nepal.
