

Bungee Jumping in Nepal

Facts

Destination: Nepal

Bungee jumping is considered to be one of the most adventurous and rewarding activities to be accomplished. In fact, only the daring who love the real thrill of adventure can do it and the experience will undoubtedly be a memory in the lifetime. Bungee jump here in Nepal has been technically designed through long research to let the jumpers especially adventure enthusiasts the most safety, ecstasy and a world-class through it and probably offers exactly the same what you desire to experience. Here in Nepal, the Bhote Koshi river offers a superb platform for the bungee jump. Bhote Koshi River, the most popular Bungee jump site in Nepal is located 160 m. over Bhote Koshi River and it is located closer to the Nepal-Tibet border. It is a three-hour bus ride, a scenic drive from Kathmandu.

Day to Day Itinerary

Day 01: After breakfast, drive to Basherri [3 -4hrs]. Begin the rafting and end it on Lamoshangu.

Day 02: After breakfast, begin the rafting and end at Sukute and drive back to Kathmandu.

Cost Includes

- Bungee jump

- Delicious lunch
- By bus, Kathmandu to suspension bridge backs Kathmandu.

Cost Excludes

- Nepal visa.
- Meals.
- Insurance.
- Personal expensive.
- Private car (cost 140 USD).