The Everest view trekking of Nepal offers unlimited picturesque places and best viewpoints to witness the world-famous mountains and its surrounding Himalayan ranges. This panoramic trekking in Nepal extravaganza presents the chance to witness the widespread Himalayan ranges along with splendid Sherpa community up in the hills and mountains residing in a clustered or scattered settlement around Namche, Phakding, Lukla, Mongla Danda, and Tengboche.

The Everest view trekking starts from the mountain flight to Lukla from Kathmandu. The flight itself is the adventure-filled activity as the flight routes towards the world's extreme airport Tenzing Hillary Airport of the world. The trekking starts from this small Sherpa town after meeting the rest of the trekking support crew. The day's rest would be in Phakding. The Phakding to Namche Bazaar trekking trail offers magnificent river crossing by the suspension bridge full of prayer flags and the continuous mountain chilled air coming towards you. The acclimatization takes place in Namche Bazaar once you have reached there. The excursion in and around Namche Bazaar would take place as part of the acclimatization.

Everest View Trekking there are various options for the trekkers either to hike towards Everest View Hotel or towards Khumjung village and can be around the hills of Namche Bazaar. The magnificent colorful rooftops in the Namche Bazaar could be another sight that you can savor in this trekking. After Namche Bazaar the trekking moves towards Mongla Danda. The place Mongla Danda suits well for its name as this small Sherpa hub is situated at the top of the hill from where the Himalayan ranges seem so picturesque and panoramic. The clouds at times could be seen below you. Then the trek takes you to the spiritual village of Everest region the Tengboche. The prayer chants and the incense can be heard and smelt throughout your stay in the Tengboche. If you are lucky enough then Mani Rimdu festival can also be observed during your stay in Tengboche. The Everest view trekking of the Everest and surrounding mountains are so clear and near this place. Once you have witnessed and captured the panoramic site of the Khumbu Himalayan ranges the trek route back to Lukla passing by Namche and Phakding for the flight back to Kathmandu.
